Food, Health, & Safety Committee

Minutes of February 12, 2018

Present: Bridget Alexander, Jack Aldisert, Todd Badham, Libby Baldwin, Terry Halvorson, Deborah Hope, and Julia Lin

The meeting was called to order by Chairperson Jack Aldisert. The following reports were given:

Todd Badham/Security:

- Todd reported that a student came forward to confess that he was the person in question regarding a reported assault. Evidently he was intoxicated at the time and thought he knew her.
- There was 1 alcohol violation in a Union Ave. residence, 1 in Anderson/Langdon, and 1 drug violation in Smith.

Terry Halvorson/Dining Services

- Terry reported on texted comments: DCS received a request to have nutritional information on the black bean burger, a complaint about non-motivated workers, a request to bring back chipotle tabasco (the large bottles have been discontinued by the supplier, but DCS will place small bottles at fill stations), a request for gluten-free waffles, and more mac and cheese. Compliments were received regarding the cauliflower couscous, and complaints that the Asian chicken and hamburgers were raw.
- Committee worked on possible “myth vs fact” poster statements.
- Elena Staver is working on a sustainability project.

Libby Baldwin/CHWS

- Libby reported that there are still high numbers of students with flu symptoms. She reminded people that it is possible to receive a tray of food if you are ill.
- The wait for counseling is now 1 day.
- Self-harm reports are now at 57—well beyond last year’s data at this same time.
- Chris Edwards and Kris Bartanen are on the search committee for the new Director of CHWS.
- The vending machine is still in progress.
- Libby invited everyone to a screening of the body positive film Embrace on February 26 from 6:00pm – 8:30 in the Kilworth Chapel basement.

Julia Lin/ASUPS Student Interests

- Julia reported that vegan/vegetarian guides are complete and can be found at the various cafes.

Jack Aldisert/Food, Health, and Safety Committee Chairperson:

- Jack reported that this is his last meeting as chairperson, and that he enjoyed standing on this committee. He also reported that the emails and posters went out regarding the new CHWS counseling availability.

The next Food, Health, and Safety Meeting will be on February 27 at 4:00pm.
