A student organization must have some procedures by which to conduct its business. A constitution and by-laws are an effective way of establishing those procedures. Generally, the constitution and by-laws are two separate documents. The constitution sets forth the general principles upon which an organization was established, membership requirements, and designated officer responsibilities. The by-laws contain, in more detail, the procedures to be followed for meetings, decision-making, officer selection, and financial transactions.

If an organization wants to establish basic principles that are to be difficult to change, a constitution separate from by-laws is recommended. Where this is not desirable and all the rules could be subjected to the same amendment procedures, two separate documents are not necessary.

Following is a suggested outline for information to be included in a constitution and/or by-laws:

I. Name of the Organization

II. General Description (mission statement / statement of purpose and practice)

III. Membership

   The following must be stated directly:
   1. All voting members and officers of (Name of organization) must be regular fee paying students at the University of Puget Sound.
   2. (Name of organization) shall not deny consideration for membership to any student because sex, race, creed, color, national origin, religion, age, disability, marital or familial status, sexual orientation, veteran status, gender identity, or any other basis prohibited by local, state or federal law.

IV. Officers

   List the officers and advisor of the organization. Include responsibilities and authority, term and procedures for election, removal, and the filling of vacancies.

   The actual names of officers should not be included in this document

V. Meetings

   Specify information regarding the meetings of the organization. Include regularly scheduled meetings, procedures for calling special meetings, required notice for meetings; quorum, order of business, and disposition of minutes.

VI. Committees

   List the committees of the organization. Include information regarding the process of appointment, responsibilities, and reporting.

VII. Parliamentary Authority

   Name of the manual of parliamentary practice to which questions will be referred.

VIII. Amendments

   Specify the procedure(s) for amendments including advance notifications, number of readings, and required vote for adopt

Faculty and Staff Advisor Agreement

Name of Student Club/Organization: ____________________________

This agreement outlines the relationship between the advisor(s) and the members of the above-named student club or organization. This document should be reviewed annually, and when necessary, re-negotiated for the benefit of all parties.

Student clubs and organizations must have a faculty or staff advisor who is employed by the University of Puget Sound. The faculty or staff member serves purely as an advisor and an additional communications link between the student club or organization and the University.

The following guidelines should be used as a tool for defining the advisor’s relationship with the student club or organization. In return for their support, the advisor should expect that they will be consulted regularly by the officers concerning their plans for group activities and programs.

The advisor should:
- suggest and encourage new directions and options;
- help members apply principles and skills learned in and out of the classroom;
- provide insight into the history and traditions of past years;
- help with transition of new leadership;
- be knowledgeable of University policies and procedures.

The advisor may NOT:
- demand actions from club/organization leaders or members;
- have authoritative decision-making power;
- hold any club/organization leadership positions at any point in time.

If not being consulted, the advisor should insist that the group do so. At the same time, the advisor should avoid becoming involved in clearing or approving every detail.

We, the undersigned, agree to follow these guidelines.
